Press Quotes

“Pete is great! He always comes to our events with a hat for the occasion and a big smile. He is so talented, knowing many different styles and genres of music. He is warm and friendly with our guests and will eagerly take requests and get them dancing. We always know that Pete and his accordion will add a lot of fun to our event!”

Kate Blessing,
Martin Luther Campus Senior Living & Care, Bloomington

“Pete is able to connect with our residents through his music. We have several residents who love polkas and waltzes, and his music brings back memories for many of them. He gives a bit of history for some of the songs he plays and a little history about his accordion. We enjoy having Pete perform for our residents.”

Annie Torgerson
*Activities Coordinator
Emerald Crest Memory Care - Shakopee*

“Pete has performed for our residents a few times now and they are always asking to have him back! He entertains the crowd with his music but also provides fun facts about the songs, musicians, and even has a few jokes! His friendly demeanor and lively personality keeps everyone engaged and entertained for his whole set. He plays a variety of tunes that are sure to please everyone. We love Pete!”

Laura Flicker
*Director of Therapeutic Rec & Volunteer Services
Cassia Chapel View HCC*

“For several years now, Pete Sandvik has brought the party to the annual Art-a-Whirl® festival at Bleeding Hearts Studio. He's charismatic and engaging, and he plays a wide range of musical styles. He's part story-teller and all-round entertainer! Trust Accordion to Pete to bring the fun!”
